

"AN HUNDRED YEARS OLD."—Departed this life, on the 11th of February, 1855, at the residence of his daughter, (Mrs. Lydia Larsh, in Dixon Tp., Preble county, O.) DAVID TRUX, Sen., at the advanced age of one hundred years, less eight days. The deceased was born February 19, 1755, in Morris county, New Jersey. At the age of 14 years, his parents moved to Loudon county, Va., where he continued to reside till the close of the War of the Revolution, and in which he served his oppressed country in the "tented fields and battle's storm." Thence he emigrated to Washington county, Penn. Again in 1792 he penetrated the wilds of the West and located first in Fayette and then in Adams county, Kentucky, where he remained until the year 1809, when he removed to what is now Dixon Township, (then not organized) in this county, where he "pitched his tent" for the residue of his long and eventful life. When the War of 1812 broke out he was "anxious and willing" to go out to service in the defense of his own and his neighbors' hearth stones, whose quiet was often assailed by the cruelties of Indian warfare. But by previous exposure, having partially lost his hearing, he had to remain at home, yet took great interest in arming and equipping three of his four sons, (two of them then in their "teens") for the army of the North-west, commanded by the lamented Gen. Harrison. The writer of this note recollects with pleasure the enthusiasm manifested by this Revolutionary Patriot, in consoling the weeping wife and wailing mother, when taking leave of their loved ones and cheering the "beardless braves" as they were deployed into line by their Captain. (D. E. Hendricks.) The deceased voted at every Presidential election, since the organization of the Government to the present—voted for Washington, Adams, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Clay, Harrison, Taylor and Scott;—was the father of six children, only four of whom survive him; and died as he had lived, at peace with the world and its Creator.—Eaton Register.
